Monthly Bulletin of the Hawaii Kai Lions Club

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Aloha Lions, CIS and Friends!

It is my honor and privilege to be your new President. I will need all of your help, as Immediate Past President Sandy has done such a wonderful job!

A BIG Mahalo to everyone who contributed their time and service to make our 46th Annual Benefit Breakfast such a fantastic success. It was great to see our Hawaii Kai Lions joined in force by Lions from Manoa, Koko Head, Aloha Pono Club working together with Kaiser Girls Soccer team and Pack 101 Scouts. In addition to our Rescue Tube awareness and the Manoa Lions demonstrating and teaching CPR and use of the AED to the public. Lions Peggy, David and Irwin Santos did a great job promoting our breakfast KHON2 News at 6:00 pm and 10:00 pm on Friday. The presence of KITV, KGMB, KHON2, and MidWeek at the breakfast on Sunday provided even more publicity of our breakfast next year.

This year, Erick Kvick collected almost $2,000 in donations from business and individuals. Eric also had 46th annual t-shirts made, with the donors' names on the back that were worn by Lions and volunteers to recognize them. Alvin made posters with the donors' names that were hung at entrances to the cafeteria. We hope to get started earlier and get more donations next year!

We served 3,339 breakfasts on Father's Day with a total of 3,240 ticket sold. The served breakfast count includes breakfasts served to volunteers. Our CIS Bake Sale, chaired by Sylvia Nakakura and Plant Sale, chaired by Loyal Mehroff was successful again. We are still receiving ticket sales money and hope to get the final count out soon.

On Thursday, June 20th, we celebrated Sandy's Presidential 2018-2019 reign at the Aloha Party. A heart felt Mahalo to Lion Alvin and his CIS Jackie for opening their home and welcoming everyone. Another big Mahalo to Lion Cynthia who made the dinner. We all had a wonderful time with delicious food, spirits and enjoyable company. The Board sang "So Long, Farewell" to Sandy and was told to "roast" Sandy, they all had a hard time to say about Sandy so told banker jokes, instead. We all commented how amazing that she could handle the club President responsibilities while still working!

Before the celebration, Sandy made a presentation CIS "Joan" Sindiong with a proclamation and plaque for Apolonio "Sindi" Sindiong for his service as a Life Member Hawaii Kai Lion.

As I mentioned at Charter night, I will use your feedback from the survey and address membership, mentoring and training, and look for projects and activities which benefit both the community and members and are of interest and enrich your experience as a Lion. Thank you in advance for your support!

"have Fun while we Serve!"

Mahalo,
Lion Ells

Pancake Ticket Sale Numbers

Congratulations to top ticket seller Lion Peggy Oyama

Submitted by Lion Ken Nishibun

CONGRATULATIONS to Lion Peggy Oyama who led all Hawaii Kai Lions in sales of Pancake Breakfast tickets with 250 tickets sold! Her efforts were certainly an inspiration for all of our Lions to ensure that we continue to have the largest and most successful pancake breakfast in all of Hawaii!

Our Fathers' Day Breakfast is such an outstanding and successful community event because of the commitment that all Hawaii Kai Lions and CISs have to sell tickets and get donations, especially those of you who gave up their Sunday mornings to canvass our Hawaii Kai neighborhoods and to man our stations at the Hawaii Kai Shopping Center. 3,344 tickets were sold prior to the breakfast with an additional 442 purchased at the door for a total of 3,786.

Special recognition goes out to those listed below who sold or donated an amount equal to at least a hundred tickets!

Peggy Oyama	250

Toshi Nishioka	158

District 50 Convention Awards

Submitted by Lion Allen Umeda

On Saturday morning, June 8, 2019, a total of 21 Lions, family and friends joined the Friends of Hanauma Bay's quarterly Clean-up. Most of the Lions then had lunch together at Big City Diner, Kaimuki. We were privileged to be joined by the Hawaii Cyber Lions Club in their first project after being officially formed at the end of May.

In total, around 80 people participated in the Clean-up and removed more than 400 pound of debris including trash from park visitors and marine debris such as nets. It was a gorgeous day at Hanauma Bay and a good event for volunteers of all ages which included elementary school children in our group.

The following attended the events at Hanauma Bay and/or Big City Diner:

Hawaii Kai Lions Club: Cynthia Chun, Alvin Hayashibara, Len Furukawa (Alvin's guest), David Iwana, Iris Iwana (CIS), Marja Leivo, Kelan Yoshioka, Eric Kimura, Joel Leo and sons Trystan and Cedric, Allen Umeda

Hawaii Cyber Lions Club: Peggy Oyama, Kyle Laconsay, Mick Laconsay, Wil Chang, Amy Chang (CIS) and children Carter and Della, Shelby Billionaire, Sonny Jakahi (Shelby's uncle), Wesley Millacci, Loyal Mehrhoff

Special thanks to Peggy Oyama, Cyber Lions Club president, for arranging the Hawaii Cyber Lions' participation in this event, organizing the lunch at Big City Diner, and sharing her great photos from the events. We look forward to future activities together with our clubs.
