Monthly Bulletin of the Hawaii Kai Lions Club

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Aloha Lions!

Although February is a short month but it seemed long due to the projects and activities which we had. We had 2 great speakers in Doug Park, American Diabetes Association and John Mau & Rob Holden of HPD. Doug gave an educational presentation about nutrition and exercise to prevent diabetes. And, things you can do to check for early signs of diabetes. It was nice to see that Lion meetings and speakers provide a means for old friends to hook up again-- Doug and Kerry Yoon were elementary school friends.

John and Rob also provided great information on crime prevention and what we can do to protect ourselves. And, good tips like leaving your TV or radio on when you're away from your house and using a timer to turn on my lights when I'm on a trip. I will be contacting Rob to see if Kalama Valley has a Neighborhood Security Watch group. Kelan Yoshioka and Frances Lum received their Proud Lion and LCI Mentoring Program Certificates at the 3rd Cabinet meeting on February 15. Sponsors Ken Nishibun and Dr. Roger Ede also received LCI Mentoring Program Certificates. Liza Gill, Flavors Hook Kids, was a guest speaker and the cabinet supportive of their campaign. 2VDG Mitch Tam will bring it to the D50 cabinet for endorsement.

For those that attended Cynthia's Chinese New Year dinner, what a feast we had!!! Her house was also decorated so it felt like you were in a Chinese restaurant in China. Also in attendance were her orchid and Line dance clubs. Thank you, Cynthia!

Thanks to Ken Nishibun for coordinating the Kaiser Complex 5th Grade Fitness meet. There were a lot of fit and competitive kids.

Eric Kwick, Gary Nip, and I promoted Lions at the Great Aloha Run Expo on Saturday and met several people who were interested in joining a Lions club. Early the next day (4:30am), Eric and I helped D50 with the GAR t-shirt distribution.

Thanks to Allen Umeda who coordinated the Community Huki (Invasive Algae Removal), Saturday, Feb 22, 9:00am Kuli'ou'ou Beach Park. We had help from Eric's friends visiting from Washington who got to see Lions in action. Joel Leo, David Iwana, Kendrick Chang, and I attended the Pack 101 Blue & Gold Banquet on Sunday, February 23. Good to see boys and girls learning responsibility and commitment skills at a young age. An interesting note of how things in the community are connected, Rob Holden, HPD, is married to one of the primary leaders of the scout program. His 2 sons were among others honored at the banquet.

Rich Halverson (15 years) and Tommy Chun (30 years) received LCI Chevron awards for Length of Service at the meeting. Also receiving Chevron awards were Andy Uramoto (45 years) and Ralph Nakamura (20 years).

Some reminders, deadline to sign up for the Zone Social is March 14 and Leos are again collecting hotel toiletries to give the homeless.

Mahalo!

Eyeglass Recycling

Submitted by Lion Ellsworth Fujii

On Sunday, January 26, 18 Hawaii Kai Lions and 8 Kaiser High School Leo Club (including advisor Gordon Chun) met at the clubhouse at 9:00 for the Eyeglass Recycling project. Everyone helped set up the room; Leos sorted and selected only reusable glasses, while everyone else formed 2 cleaning lines, and pitched in where needed to successfully recycled 1,072 eyeglasses in 2 hours. Lions helping on Sunday were Lions Jeanne Alices, Roy Aoki, Cynthia Chun, Sandy Gomes, Alvin Hayashibara, Stanley Ito, Eric Kimura, Eric Kwick, Marja Leivo, Frances Lum, Helen Morita, Ken Nishibun, Peggy Oyama, Mervin Wee, Rick & Lyn Yee, Kerry Yoon, Kelan Yoshioka, and Ellsworth Fujii.

Non-prescription sunglasses were placed in a separate box which will be given to foreign fishermen who are at sea for months and can't afford to buy sunglasses. Thank you to the Lions who collected and stored eyeglasses from the various stores and optometrists throughout the year. And, to Lion Roy for picking up the pizza from Costco.

Frances and Ellsworth dropped off 5 boxes of recycled eyeglasses to DHX on Monday.

Sight Is Beautiful Poster Judging

Judging was done at Lion Alvin's Home. A total of 423 posters were collected from the three school. Kamiloiki had two and Koko Head had four so total of six participants have been given to the zone chair for zone judging then hopefully to district. Lions Frances Lum, Ken Nishibun and Delwin Ching collected posters from their respective schools. Thank you to all the lions who took the time to judge the posters and pick the finalists from our Hawaii Kai area elementary schools.

Community Seaweed Huki

Submitted by Lion Allen Umeda

On a beautiful Saturday morning, February 22, the Hawaii Kai Lions, CIS and friends joined an invasive seaweed removal project organized by the Malama Maunalua community organization. Removal of invasive algae and the recovery of native seagrass has helped to restore the nearshore waters and support increasing amounts of fish in the area. There were some stiff backs from stooping over to pick the seaweed, but no worse for the wear! We worked at Pāiko beach alongside a large group of volunteers totaling 130 people, and together removed about 3,800 pounds of algae.

Lions Alvin Hayashibara, David Iwana, Ellsworth Fujii, Eric Kwick & CIS Nancy and 2 visiting friends, Kelan Yoshioka, Marja Leivo and Allen Umeda participated in this event.

Ka Iwi Trail Clearing

Sandy, Marja, and Kendrick at the Ka Iwi trail clearing workday.

Submitted by Lion Marja Leivo

We three Lions joined the Ka Iwi Coast Coalition’s trail clearing activities today, a beautiful sunny Leap Year Saturday. While Kendrick Chang was up the mountain trail clearing, Sandy Gomes and I picked golf balls off the trail and nearby bushes. There are so many golf balls because the trail starts just outside of the driving range for the Hawaii Kai Golf Course

Together, with half a dozen other volunteers, Sandy and I picked 45 buckets holding about 260 balls each. The picture attached shows our bounty before the last bucket was added. The guided hikes will occur on March 28th and March 30th. Good times had by all!

Cub Scout Pack 101 Blue & Gold

Lions Ellsworth Fujii, Kendrick Chang, Dave Iwana, and Joel Leo attended Cub Scout Pack 101’s Blue & Gold Banquet where all the scouts received their latest awards and rank advancements. Pack 101 filled the entire cafeteria at Hahaione Elementary School and continues to grow with the inclusion of girls in the scouting program.
